SNHS Hour Rules

- All events must come from the service, cultural, and social opportunities we provide.
- Each event needs to be signed by the officer present, except for tutorials & cookie dough.
- Failure to attend an event you signed up for without finding a replacement will result in a 1-hour penalty.
- All members must attend at least 1 of our service, cultural, and social events (other than cookie dough sales & tutorials) to satisfy the hour requirements.
- Members who sell more than 5 tubs of cookie dough may count the extra tubs (over 5) for up to 4 hours of your total hours.
- Record cookie dough sales on the hour sheet so officers will know to verify the hours with our records.
- Tutoring may also count for up to 4 hours of your total hours.
- For tutorials, describe the Spanish level & topic you tutored the student in; tutees must print & sign their name & write their phone number.
- Officer meetings are held Monday after school in Mr. Toraño's room, Rm. 2214, in case you must attend one or have any questions.
- Members are allowed to miss only one meeting per semester, in case of emergency. Missing 2 meetings will result in a 2-hour penalty.
